The Color of Crime Rears Its Head

As the numbers go, America is getting safer. Over the past 50 years, violent crime rates have consistently adhered to a sinusoidal wave, peaking in the early '90s and steadily declining for 20 years.

A number of political and economic causes have been put forth to explain this trend, including renewed vigilance regarding non-violent offenses, readily available abortions for the underclass, and the dot.com and housing booms. Each one of these carries a kernel of truth. But the uninspiring reality is that most credit should go to the Prison Industrial Complex.

The United States has the highest incarceration rate in the world, easily outpacing bogeyman "totalitarian" governments like China and Russia. And the system's effectiveness isn't simply a matter of punishment. The government has effectively locked violent criminals away from society in a parallel, government-run universe and kept them there.

Discussing crime in this way is, needless to say, taboo. Major critiques of the Prison Industrial Complex have been relegated to academic leftists and have played no role in major elections; White liberals might seem well disposed to a social crusade against incarceration...but at the end of the day, they, too, want to be safe.

Even more taboo is discussing the racial elements of this matter, what The New Century Foundation has called "The Color of Crime" and which it has documented for the past 15 years. As its report states,

Blacks are seven times more likely than people of other races to commit murder, and eight times more likely to commit robbery. When blacks commit crimes of violence, they are nearly three times more likely than non-blacks to use a gun, and more than twice as likely to use a knife.

As a result of realities like these, federal and state governments have imprisoned some five percent of the Black population. It's a rather brutal solution to what is ultimately a demographic problem, and it has involved massive and untold economic costs to maintain such an enormous penal system.

Of late, there's reason to believe that as America enters a prolonged economic depression, this arrangement--what amounts to a social contract of sorts--is breaking down.

Spontaneously organized through Twitter and social networks and documented and promoted through YouTube, violent crimes for fun and profit have become more visibly brazen, sadistic, racially motivated, and sometimes quasi-ideological/political: "Beat Whitey Night" took place at an Iowa state fair last summer...a White transvestite was brutalized to the point of experiencing a seizure in a McDonalds, as patrons looked on without offering assistance...roaming bands of thugs have gone on rampages throughout Chicago...and more. (The blogger "Unamusement Park" has documented the phenomenon here and here.)

The most recent version of the "American Dream"--in which prosperity and democracy would help the nation transcend its older racial hierarchies and hostilities--is evaporating before our eyes.

All of this is a preface to a recent incident involving radio-host Neil Boertz, which I believe is quite significant--a mainstream and quite popular conservative commentator laid down the truth about The Color of Crime.

First, Boertz said this on his daily program last Friday:

And you want to know why I moved out of Atlanta and only spend a couple of weeks a year in this town? That's one of the reasons. Carjackings, violence, people getting shot. It's ridiculous. This city harbors an urban culture of violence. [...]

This town is starting to look like a garbage heap. And we got too damn many urban thugs, yo, ruining the quality of life for everybody. And I'll tell you what it's gonna take. You people, you are - you need to have a gun. You need to have training. You need to know how to use that gun. You need to get a permit to carry that gun. And you do in fact need to carry that gun and we need to see some dead thugs littering the landscape in Atlanta. We need to see the next guy that tries to carjack you shot dead right where he stands. We need more dead thugs in this city. And let their -- let their mommas -- let their mommas say, "He was a good boy. He just fell in with the good crowd." And then lock her ass up.

This, of course, inspired much Righteous Liberal Outrage.

What's most interesting is that Boortz refused to back down. Though he recited the typical claptrap about "it's about culture, not skin color," he also cited statistic that he most certainly gleaned from a reading The Color of Crime. Wrote Boortz:

Contact your local U.S. Government printing office, buy the reports and start crunching the numbers. Or, if you wish, you can just read some of the data developed by people who have already done that work for you!

- Blacks are seven times more likely than people of other races to commit murder, and eight times more likely to operate.
- When blacks commit crimes of violence, they are nearly 3 times more likely than non-blacks to use a gun, and more than twice as likely to use a knife. Bear in mind that my comments last week were born of reports of two carjackings by young black males in the Atlanta area in which guns were used.
- If you start to delve even deeper into the statistics you will see that when you deal with the issue of interracial crime between blacks and whites you will find that blacks are the perpetrators 85% of the time while whites are responsible 15% of the time.
- The single best indicator of violent crime in an area is the percentage of the population that is black and Hispanic.

Racist statistics? Come on ... give me a break.

No, the statistics aren't "racist," in the sense of being bigoted and biased; they do, however, reveal America's demographic reality. A reality the mainstream media is increasingly unable to deny.

not for want of trying! But talking to my liberal friends, I realize we have a long long long way to go, particularly with SWPL. They are still gushing about obama.

I just hope when the Negroes finally go ape when the EBT Card stop working that the Lilly White Liberal traitors are the first to be taken out! If they survive the attack they become cured and join the other side for survival.

Georgia Senator Richard Russell said in the 50's, "The surest cure for liberalism is a strong dose of Negroes."

Thomas Jefferson said it best: "Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate, than that these people are to be free; nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Nature, habit, opinion have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them."

The government has effectively locked violent criminals away from society in a parallel, government-run universe and kept them there.

And crimes committed in that universe don't count. Crime rates are usually calculated for the "civilian, non-institutionalized population," i.e. for people not in jail/prison. In all likelihood, most rapes occur in prison, for example, and these do not count at all towards the US rape rate.

In my opinion, the flash mob violence is partly the result of disappointed expectations. Reparations and other handouts have not been forthcoming from the Obama administration. Some of the diversity, who have (finally) come to the conclusion that Obama isn't "black," are taking their own reparations from Whitey.

i think holder's refusal prosecute blacks has something to do with it. and white and black liberals telling these kids its not their fault - look at the jenna 6 thing.

Maybe so, but I suggest that the flash mob phenomenon has been empowered by Obama's electoral success. The powers-that-be regularly turn a blind eye to black violence. Even to acknowledge it brands those who do as "racist." Blacks are now regularly behaving with impunity in ways that they haven't done since perhaps the Reconstruction era - and whites are too cowed to respond with force.

Look for serious black mob violence after the 2012 election, whatever its results may be. If Obama loses, it will be "black rage"; if he wins, it will be black celebration.

I feel that another unfortunate aspect of the growing bold actions taken by inner city black and latin thugs is that through the phenomenon of popular culture which is inundated with urban hip hop nonsense is that large numbers of white suburban and rural youth are looking positively at urban black culture.

As a result nihilistic corporations and the left wing media see this behavior as a viable and lucrative business opportunity which further degrades western society as well as homogenizes and diminishes white european culture to a point of irrelevancy.

Damn right! Nothing like a little Fiddy Cent listening and video game playing to get one ready to go polar bear hunting or jacked for a round of Knockout King!

Yes, good point about them being "empowered" by his election victory, too. However, I don't think there will be black mob violence if Obama wins in 2012 because there didn't seem to be any in 2008. The mob violence is going to get worse if it's not nipped in the bud this year. If "large groups of youth" go ape after the 2012 election it will be because they know there will be few, if any, repercussions.

Liberals are always on a witch hunt for Whites that speak truth to the public. Adhering to politically-correct orthodoxy is more important than defending your life and livelihood or being honest. It's really a bizarre and despicable mentality.

It's actually not specifically about skin color, skin pigmentation doesn't make someone a criminal. If Whites get tans they don't become homicidal. Race and genetic differences are much more profound than skin color.

Shooting some thugs doesn't change the impact that alien races have on our culture and civilization. They deserve it sure, and it would be nice to read more White men administering some old-style justice. However the effect of coarsening our culture, lowering standards and anti-White political tyranny still remains.

There needs to be a significant demographic change. Our forebears knew this, such is why we had immigration laws in the past that sought to keep our racial and ethnic population predominantly Northwestern European. Our very definition of White has changed to include non-Europeans and racial hybrids, it's a travesty.

"The government has effectively locked violent criminals away from society in a parallel, government-run universe and kept them there. "

I'd like to see an analysis of how and why this happened in America, and in no other Western country. What were the cultural differences that made it possible? In other Western countries the Elites push for less and less incarceration, no matter how bad crime gets. Here in the UK sentencing has fractionally increased since the '80s, but the difference is tiny (except possibly for violent rape, which seems to be treated slightly more seriously - 5 years instead of 2 years sort of difference, with automatic 50% remission), and all the 'respectable' media reports push for ever-more liberalisation.

Is the difference that in the US sentencing policy is decided at State level, and the States are more responsive to the citizenry?

"Why this happened in America, and in no other Western country?" Simple, the Black population has never been less than 10% in America. No other Western country has had to face this demographic fact.

The MSNBC banner reads, "Is this rhetoric dangerous?" This is instructive, and representative of the liberal's denial of reality. For the liberal the danger is recognizing the truth and speaking it. No longer is reality, i.e., black violence, the problem at all. One must always be wary of the transformative power of language, when used illegitimately, to corrupt thinking.

Liberals always seem to be far more concerned with hypothetical white violence than with actual non-white violence. Whenever a Muslim goes Jihadi, NPR and the NYT will breathlessly ask "Will this lead to an anti-Muslim backlash?" Nevermind the fact that thousands of white Americans have been killed by Muslims, while politically-motivated white-on-Muslim attacks in this country are nil. It's fantastically absurd, like a resident of New York City who lives in perpetual fear of a bear attack.

Again, it's highly doubtful that Ed Schultz has offered any coverage to the actual black-on-white violence that occurs everyday in this country, but "violent rhetoric" by whites is cause for grave concern.

Many whites are just as responsible for this crime rate: For being too cowardly to acknowledge the facts.

I don't know if it's that per say in total. I think a lot of White people are still in the dark on the matter due to a lack of MSM reporting coupled with constant brainwashing starting at the kindergarten level on the "joys of diversity" and the "evil white oppressors" starting with our Founding Forefathers.

I do realize that with the internet (thank the Lord) the information is getting out. However, when I tell White people the level of the blackness of crime against White people as a whole they have a deer in the head lights look! I have to prove it to them with "official government" statistics. And article such as this. The only thing we can do is educate our people on the matter.
